

The people of Mesopotamia were focused on gods.

Found on Alters or in Shrines

Embodied the worshipper

Carved out of Gypsum or Limestone

The hands are cupped to show attentiveness.

Votive Figures

Come in different sizes.

Both Female and Male had different types of clothing

The figures also show bearing gifts to the gods.

Only priest was able to get into the shrine so the figures is how people showed themselves to the gods.

The facial expressions show diffraction in character